Mr. Fesler has, for the past twelve years, been one of the outstanding hospital administrators in the United States. # MEETING OF THE AMERICAN PROTESTANT HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

A good attendance marked the tenth annual convention of the American Protestant Hospital Association meeting which was held at The Roosevelt, New Orleans, October 17, 18, 19, and 20. At the opening session the official greetings of the Mayor of the city were brought to the assembly by Walter Barnett, assistant city attorney of New Orleans. The reply was made by Luther G. Reynolds, superintendent of the Seattle General Hospital and president of the Association. It was followed by a most interesting paper read by Dr. B. A. Wilkes, superintendent of the Hollywood Hospital and president-elect of the association. He took for his subject "The Duty of the Hospital to the Intern and the Intern to the Hospital." His paper was followed by one on a kindred subject—"The Medical Staff in Relation to Interns." This was given by Dr. T. Restin Heath, superintendent, Bethany Hospital, Kansas City, Kansas and following these two papers was a round table on the subject of "Interns" led by Dr. J. H. Musser, professor of medicine, Tulane University, New Orleans.

A second session was held on Friday evening, to which the general public was invited. Dr. Frank C. English, executive secretary of the association, spoke on the subject, "The Perennial Program and the Association's Objective," and Rev. Herm. L. Fritschel, superintendent of the Milwaukee Hospital and the association's historian, spoke on "Ten Years of the American Protestant Hospital Association." President Reynolds closed the session with an inspiring message in his presidential address.

Vice-president A. O. Fonkalsrud presided at the Saturday morning session and the first paper to have been delivered by Miss Betty Gray, Knoxville General Hospital, on the subject "Record Librarians" was read by Matthew O. Foley, editor of Hospital Management, Paul Fesler, superintendent, University of Minnesota Hospital, followed this paper with a round table on the subject of "Case Records." The round table brought forth much valuable information and many excellent questions were propounded.

The second subject of the morning was practical economics in the hospital and the first to speak on the topic was E. E. King, superintendent of the Missouri Baptist Hospital, St. Louis. He was followed by John Olsen, business director of the Richmond Memorial Hospital, Prince Bay, Staten Island, N. Y. Mr. Olsen demonstrated his talk with several examples of economy and told of the superiorities of brass piping over other kinds. He also outlined how a great deal of money could be saved in the purchasing of fuel.

Mr. George Sheats, superintendent of the Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee led a most instructive round table on economics. Among the speakers were Dr. Henry Hedden, superintendent of the Methodist Hospital, Memphis, J. B. Franklin, superintendent of the Georgia Baptist Hospital, Atlanta, Robert Jolly, superintendent of the Baptist Hospital, Houston, Texas, Rev. Notson, Sioux City, Iowa, Rev. John Martin, superintendent, Good Samaritan Hospital, Jersey City, and others. A discussion of co-operative buying revealed that some considered it unsatisfactory while others extolled its virtues. Buying futures and the purchasing of standard brands were also discussed. All seemed to agree that buying standard brands was the safest in the long run. Following the reports of committees the meeting adjourned until the evening when the banquet was held.

The hospital's most popular toastmaster, E. S. Gilmore, superintendent of the Wesley Memorial Hospital, Chicago, was introduced by President Reynolds. Mr. Gilmore told several exceedingly humorous stories and to him was due the success of the banquet. Dr. Christopher G. Parnall, president of the American Hospital Association, Dr. Lewis A. Sexton, president-elect, and Dr. Alton Ochsner of New Orleans were the guests of honor.

On Sunday afternoon Rev. Phillip Vollmer, Jr., superintendent of Fairview Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio, spoke on "The Function and Place of the Church Hospital in the Care of the Sick" and there was an open forum on "Human Relations in Church Hospitals." The remainder of of the afternoon was spent in group meetings of denominational representatives.

Sunday evening the sixth meeting was held and an address by Bishop H. Lester Smith, Resident Bishop of Chattanooga of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was given.

The last session was held Monday morning, when Mr. Foley made a report of the activities of the Public Relations Committee. This was followed by a fine paper read by Dr. J. A. Diekmann, superintendent of the Bethesda Hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio. "The Increasing Cost to the Patient of Medical and Hospital Care," and "Trends in the Schools of Nursing" were discussed. There was a general round table led by Robert Jolly.

A. O. Fonkalsrud is the president-elect and Dr. B. A. Wilkes was installed as the new president.
